Dear Worldview Warriors,

It is with great joy that I write this letter! Having held an event recently in which there was a band and a speaker, I would like to thank you for your professional and personal care. Our church had not previously offered an event like this one and you not only made it easy but enjoyable to do so.

Due to my inexperience in this area, I found the staff and the materials to be indispensable. Having dealt with Jason and Lance, they were both helpful and encouraging. What other ministry calls you just to make sure you are feeling okay about the experience? It was awesome to feel like I was working with you instead of just parallel. The suggested timelines that were provided were very useful in keeping me on track. I really appreciated that there was a list of items that we would need to provide given to me in advance. There were no surprises and as a result the evening and the event ran very smoothly.

The event itself was beyond expectation. The band, Silverline, did an amazing job. They were very entertaining and had fun with the kids. They also let the kids know that they are doing what they do for Christ. Our speaker, Jason DeZurik, was straightforward with the youth in a positive and thought-provoking way. His message was clear and pertinent.

I would like to thank all of you that played a part in making ministry with you possible. It was truly a wonderful experience that has had rippling effects throughout our entire church-and positive ones too! May God continue to bless you in this ministry and in your personal lives.

In Christ,
Jessica Cavinee
Director of Children and Youth Ministries
